0:15		[music]
0:38	Jesse	Did you read about that big zebra round up, Sam?
0:41	Sam	No, I, I ain't read the paper yet today, Jesse.
0:43	Leon	I ain't read the paper in, well, I don't remember when it was!
0:47	Jesse	Well, it wasn't in the paper, Sam! It was in one of them magazines. Smithsonian, I believe it was.
0:51	Leon	Is, is't one that write-up is in there with a picture a' Uncle Ceedy's cow up, up in his new barn. That, that one? [over lap]
1:01	Sam	Jesse, Jesse, we ain't even got a hunting season on zebras anywhere in Arkansas, have we?
1:04	Leon	You see, it makes me sleepy to read.
1:08	Jesse	Sam! Leon! I was talking about a round up of zebras over in Africa!
1:11	Sam	How'd they get over there?! Are they bringing 'em back?
1:14	Leon	Of course, I listen to radio a lot.
1:19	Jesse	Oh, Sam, as far as I know the zebras ain't never been over here. I guess they're peculiar to Africa.
1:21	Sam	Well, they're peculiar, all right. They look like Pinto mules.
1:24	Leon	Did y'all hear on radio about that big zebra round up over in Africa?
1:28	Sam	Well, no, I never, Leon!
1:31	Jesse	Sam, that's just what we was talking about! You heard about it.
1:33	Sam	No, I never heard about it on the radio, though.

1:40	Leon	Mr. Jesse, when, when they do something like that over in one of them foreign countries, is that any of our business?
1:42	Jesse	Well, Leon, I guess it's our concern to help save wild animals, all right.
1:45	Leon	Well, yeah, to put in the zoos, you mean?
1:49	Jesse	Well, Leon, I don't know... Well, what about the deer and the buffalo? Now, now, they save them! Why? There's more of them than when we was kids.
1:56	Sam	Well, that's right. There's lots of deer.
1:58	Leon	Did I tell you all about my uncle who, who was killed by a deer?
2:02	Jesse	Well, I, I do recall something about that, Leon. But did, did he kick him or paw him?
2:07	Leon	No, he just run over him. Uh, see, he was all bent over, and, and... my uncle, not the deer... and, and, and he didn't, didn't see deer coming. Don't reckon he saw that sign, neither.
2:14	Jesse	Sign? What, what sign?
2:20	Leon	The deer crossing sign. His horse throw'd his shoe and, and he was bendin' over right in the deer crossing.
2:26	Jesse	[music]
2:47	Jesse	You see, they'll catch all them zebras, and they'll put tags in their ear.
2:51	Sam	Well, will that keep them from dying, Jesse?
2:53	Jesse	Well, no, Sam. That's just so they can keep track of 'em and, and study 'em.
2:57	Leon	Well, I know the zebras will 'preciate that.
2:59	Jesse	Well, it is for their own good.
3:01	Sam	Oh, yeah, Leon. It's for the zebras.
3:03	Leon	But, but it won't keep them from dying, huh?
3:05	Sam	Well, no, Leon, but they'll have all the information when they die. You know, for informing next of kin, and they'll have a computer number and a file in some nice office.

3:15	Leon	Well, that ought to make zebras real proud.
3:17	Jesse	Now, listen, I'm gonna go over this one more time.
