0:55	Jesse	That ought to cause you to see that we ought to stop doing them things.
1:00	Sam	Stop doing what things?
1:01	Jesse	Well, yelling, scheming, and carrying on.
1:04	Sam	Oh, that was just in the movie, Jesse.
1:06	Jesse	Well, it's right here at this station about three days a week, I'd say!

1:14	Jesse	Now, Leon, we don't any help to figure this out!! [hollering]
1:16	Sam	No, Leon, we don't need no help. Jesse, I was just pointing out that to be rich makes you miserable and, and hard to get along with.
1:24	Leon	Yeah, Mr. Jesse, I, I've noticed that.
1:27	Jesse	Sam, I'm proud you finally started to notice things about people. That ought to help our business.
1:30	Leon	Yes, Sam. Y'all could make a lot more money!

1:33	Sam	Boy, that would be nice, wouldn't it? I'd like to be rich just once. If I wouldn't show some people... You, you remember that feller wouldn't let me have that car on the credit?
1:43	Jesse	Sam, that-that was a long, long time ago. [overlap]
1:44	Sam	It was a mustang and, and them cars is guaranteed to make the girls gather around you. You know, when you sit at a red light and race the motor.
1:49	Leon	They still makin' them cars, Sam?

2:04	Sam	Now, we ought to start selling cars here and run that rascal out of business. He wouldn't let me have a car on credit!
2:06	Leon	Would y'all sell me a car on credit, Sam?
2:08	Sam	Well, I, I don't know, Leon. What kind of references you got?
2:13	Leon	Well, Aunt Reeses has got The World Book, I believe it is.
2:18	Jesse	Oh, me! You know, you two could really be dangerous if you ever got two weeks pay [unknown].
2:24		[music]
2:44	Jesse	Sam, I believe this conversation has proved that people are about the same. If they got money or if they ain't--don't have money, people just seem to be people.
2:54	Leon	Well, I've noticed that, Mr. Jesse.
2:56	Sam	You mean if, if we was to get rich, we wouldn't have to change? That's good, ain't it?
3:01	Jesse	Well, it, it'd be good, if you was good.
3:03	Leon	I, I've, I've always said that.
3:05	Sam	Well, I didn't realize I'd been practicing to be rich all this time. I, I wouldn't even have changed none of my habits.
3:11	Jesse	Well, I don't think you could change if you wanted to, Sam. The thing I've noticed about you is your Sam today and Sam tomorrow.
3:18	Leon	I've noticed that!
