On motion the body adjourned to meet with Oak Hill Church, nine miles northeast of Hot Springs, Saturday before the fourth Sunday in September, 1918, at 10:00 o'clock a. m.

A song was sung, the parting hand extended, and Brother J. P. Emery led the closing prayer.

J. G. McLANE, Moderator.

J. T. BLAKELY, Clerk.

REPORTS.

We, your Committee on Foreign Missions, report as follows:

The Lord has opened the door to the gospel in the foreign fields as never before.

Our work has been progressing, but our means are not sufficient to carry the gospel to earth's remotest bounds. Contributions for Foreign Missions are smaller on account of the war, therefore, we must increase our offerings to keep the work from suffering.

Our churches in the United States are the only ones that can save the foreign work from hurtful delay, and under God we must go forward. Therefore we urge every church in this Association to do all it can in this great work.

J. W. SHEPARD,

J. B. ADAMS,

J. L. GRAVES,

Committee.

Your Committee on State Missions reports as follows:

We believe the commission to evangelize the world was given to Baptist Churches. We recognize the fact that the work of saving the lost of Arkansas rests heavily on us. A great work was done in Arkansas last year in bringing the lost to Christ. The churches coöperating through the State Convention last year had some 65 workers and reported 3,134 conversions, 2,281 baptisms, and raised more than $25,000.00 for State Missions.

And yet we have hardly commenced to reach the tens of thousands of lost souls in Arkansas. Therefore we earnestly urge that each pastor preach often on State Missions, and each church do their best.

J. P. EMERY,
C. W. CHITWOOD,
D. A. PITTS,

Committee.

We, your Committee on Associational Missions, report as follows:

We find there has been great good accomplished the past year in the bounds of this Association, through our missionary efforts.

We recommend that a greater effort be made both by our preachers and members to accomplish more during the coming year.

I. G. NEAL,
J. I. WILSON,
JASPER SIMS,

Committee.

Your Committee on Sunday Schools report as follows:

Since we recognize the Bible as the only book that reveals God's will to men, we believe it should be taught to every man, woman, and child. Therefore, it becomes the duty of every church to endeavor to keep an evergreen Sunday School.

GEORGE F. ROWE,
C. W. HOLLAND,
J. D. CUNNINGHAM,

Committee.

We, your Committee on Education, report as follows:

We see the need of education and trained workers and ministers. We have some Christian schools and we urge our churches to contribute liberally to the support of them. We also urge our pastors to preach on the subject of "Christian Education."

J. A. YOUNG,
J. H. O'DONNELL,
J. A. PHILLIPS,

Committee.

We, your Committee on Temperance, report as follows:

Knowing that intemperance is a great evil and detriment to good morals, we urge our people to refrain from dram-drinking. We believe what is termed as moderate drinking leads to excessive drinking.

We pledge ourselves to use all legitimate means and influence we have to rid our land of this awful curse.

W. H. SMITH,
J. H. McKINZIE,
JOHN NEWKIRK,
Committee.

We, your Committee on Home Missions, believe it is our duty to coöperate with the churches in having the gospel preached in the destitute places in our home field.

We recommend that collections be taken and sent through the channel the contributing church may direct.

J. C. RATLIFF,
W. A. NEIGHBORS,
J. I. ALLMAN,
Committee.

We, your Committee on Obituaries and Condolence, find that death has taken ten of our sisters and brothers.

Brother Jobe Emery and Brother J. M. Morgan, of Refuge Church; Sister Rosa Outler, of Bethlehem; Brother Albert Hawks, of Valley Home; Sister Martha Barton, of Jessievile; Sister Lula Tisdale, of Oak Hill; Sister Elizabeth Baldwin, of Marble; Brother S. Hatmaker, of Buckville; Sister Glanes, of Harvey's Chapel; Sister Parlie Boone, of Cedar Glades; Sister Mary Gillham, of New Home.

In their deaths we have sustained a great loss, but our loss is their gain.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved, and pray God's blessing on them.

M. S. JACKSON,
I. M. BURROW,
b. R. BOND,
Committee.

We, your Committee on Nominations, have selected Elder W. A. Neighbors to preach the introductory sermon at the next sesesion, with Elder E. S. Robbins alternate.

J. A. CHITWOOD,
J. M. NEAL,
E. H. NEWKIRK,
Committee.

Your Committee on Stewardship report as follows:

Every human being of sound mind is a steward. The things that we possess are not our own. They belong to God; they are to be used according to God's will, and for His glory; and to God each one must give an account of his stewardship. Whether the accounting shall be joyous or filled with disappointments, depends on whether or not we have been good stewards. We are born into the world as stewards. We may deny that we are stewards, but that does not change the fact, just as it would not change the fact for us to deny that we are children of our parents.

This doctrine is as old as the human race, and the Bible is full of it. It applies to every single thing we possess and to everything we do. "What hast thou that thou didst not receive?"

"A man can receive nothing except it has been given him from heaven?" I Cor. 4:7; John 3:27. We are to administer all that we have as the good stewards of the manifold grace of God. I Peter 4:10.

We recommend and urge:

1. That pastors preach often on stewardship, taking pains to teach the people what the Bible says on this subject.

2. That classes be organized in all churches to study this vitally important doctrine. Books can be had for such classes free of cost from J. S. Compere, 410 Donaghey Building, Little Rock, Ark.

3. That literature on stewardship and tithing be circulated everywhere.

4. That every member of every church in this Association strive to be a good steward of the manifold blessings of God.

J. W. SHEPARD,
A. R. CHITWOOD,
M. S. JACKSON,
Committee.

We, your Committee on Orphans' Home, report as follows: God our Father has made it obligatory on His people to care for the unfortunate orphans, declaring in His Word to visit the fatherless and widows in their afflictions is pure and undefiled religion.

We urge the churches of our Association to take greater interest in supporting our orphanage work in Arkansas.

We also urge each pastor to preach on orphanage work.

That each Sunday School take up collections for this work at least every quarter, and oftener if practicable.

That this Association take up a collection and divide with the Homes as per child in each home, because we find our orphans in great need.

W. L. COCKRELL,
J. P. EMERY,
J. M. CRAWFORD,
Committee.

Your Missionary submits the following report:

Days labored, 10, with Prairie Grove Church; sermons preached, 13; professions witnessed, 6; paid in full.

J. P. EMERY.

CONSTITUTION.

Article I. This union of churches of God shall be known as the Buckville Missionary Baptist Association.

Art. II. The Association shall be composed of messengers from the churches in this union. Each church shall be entitled to three messengers, who shall have been chosen by the respective church to which they belong.

Art. III. Messengers, when convened, may organize themselves into a deliberative body, by the appointment of Moderator and Clerk, who shall be chosen by ballot at each annual session, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

Art. IV. The Association shall not interfere with the rights of the churches of which it is composed.

It shall regard them as independent bodies in all matters of internal government, and shall act only as an advisory council, assuming no authority except what is implied by the very nature of the compact.

It nevertheless claims authority over its own members, the messengers from the churches, and in justice and propriety must retain the right to withdraw from all churches which may depart from the faith of this compact by becoming heterodox in faith or disorderly in practice.

It should, therefore, regard all churches united under this Constitution with vigilant eye, as its principal object shall be to promote the truth of the Gospel and advance the kingdom of God in our bounds and to all the ends of the earth.

Art. V. Newly constituted churches, or churches having letters of dismission from other Associations of like faith and order, may be admitted to membership in this Association at any regular annual session of the body, provided they send messengers with a petitionary letter.

Art. VI. The churches of this Association shall transmit to each annual session a written or printed communication, signed by the Moderator and Clerk of the church, specifying the names of their messengers and the statistics of the church, showing the progress of the church since the last session of this body, which shall be read and filed with the Clerk of this body accordingly.

Art. VII. This Association may have a fund supplied by the voluntary contributions of the churches, which shall be paid over through a finance committee to the Treasurer, who shall be elected by ballot and hold office during the pleasure of the Association. He shall present annually to the Association for inspection in the Minutes, a clear statement of all receipts.

Art. VIII. This Association shall furnish the churches with printed copies of the Minutes of each session.

Art. IX. This Association shall take cognizance of no query sent up from the churches, unless it appears that the churches sending them have used due diligence to solve them first; and shall not undertake to settle individual differences between the members of the churches, unless it appears that the individuals, or the churches to which they belong, have taken, or caused to have taken, Gospel steps for the adjustment of the trouble.

Art. X. This Constitution may be altered or amended at any regular meeting of this Association, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, provided, further, that Article IV of this Constitution shall not be altered or amended.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

Article I. We believe in one only true and living God, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Art. II. We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament is our only rule of faith and practice.

Art. III. We believe in the doctrine of election as founded in the foreknowledge of God, through the sanctification of the soul unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ.

Art. IV. We believe in original sin by the fall of Adam.

Art. V. We believe in man's incapacity, by his own free will and ability, to rescue himself from the fallen state in which he is by nature.

Art. VI. We believe the saints are justified in the sight of God by the imputed righteousness of Christ only.

Art. VII. We believe the saints will be preserved in grace and never fall finally away.

Art. VIII. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ; that believers are the only proper subjects of baptism, and that immersion is the apostolic mode.

Art. IX. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and general judgment, and that the reward of the righteous and punishment of the wicked will be eternal.

Art. X. We believe that no minister has a right to administer the ordinances of the Gospel but one who has been regularly immersed, and that is called and comes under the hands of a scriptural presbytery.
