We, your committee on Orphans' Home. report the following:

Whereas the Baptist of Arkansas owe it to our people and to our God to care for the orphans of our State. We have an Orphans' Home at Monticello in which are 58 children. Said home consists of 12 rooms, completed, furnished and paid for. It is a combination of conveniences as is required for the the nursing and training the orphans and educating them, physically, morally, intellectually and religiously.

We therefore urge our people to contribute liberally for its support.

J. F. Brice

Will Reddin

J. W. Gantt, Committee.

Discussed by Bros. Brice and Gardener after which a collection of $13.50 was taken and report adopted.

Publication.

The report on Publication was read by L. A. Robertson:

We would recommend first of all the reading of the Bible as the true source of all wisdom. We would also advise the use of all good Baptist books and Sunday School literature, and urge our people to take some Denominational paper from which there is a large number to choose.

L. A. Robertson

W. E. Moffitt

J. W. Richardson, Committee.

Adopted.

Education.

W. L. Puckett read the report on Education:

Christian education is one of the essentials to religious and moral life. It is the best capital. We earnestly recommend our own Magazine Academy. It has a thorough man at its head and the morals and health of Magazine is all that might be required. Last year it enrolled 88 girls and 115 boys, also a good class in Elocution and Music.

For higher education, we recommend Ouachita and Central Colleges.

W. L. Puckett

J. M. Martin

R. R. Elmore, Committee.

Adopted.

Associational Missions.

The report on Associational Missions was read by W. E. Logan:

We find that the Executive Board of this Association outlined its work on a basis of Five Hundred Dollars and employed five missionaries, whose work is reported in the report of Board.

As there seems to be some dissatisfaction among the churches as to plan of work, we recommend that this body elect the Board for the ensuing year, and this Board meet at once, cultivate the fields already worked, and send missionaries to as many destitute points as possible.

We further recommend that pastors take collections regularly to support this work.

W. E. Logan

D. M. Ballenger

T. H. Croy, Committee.

Discussed by Bros. Robertson, Blair and Dodd, after which, the reports on missionaries were read.

Executive Board.

Sunday School.

The report on Sunday Schools was read by W. N. Womack. We find that there are about 300 Baptist Sunday Schools in the State, and only about 14 in the bounds of our association, with an enrollment of 916 pupils who meet on the Lord's day to study the Bible. We should do much better than this with a membership of 1995 Baptists. We would urge the churches of this association to push this important work.

Foreign Missions.

The report on Foreign Missions was read by W. E. Kimbrough.

It is an apparent fact of Scripture that through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, provision was made for the salvation of the entire race and that it is the will of our Lord that the gospel of salvation be preached "in all the world" and "to every creature."

It is also plain that the duty of publishing the gospel rests upon the Lord's churches and people; that the commission of Christ, His spirit and example, the acts of the apostles and early disciples, and our possession of the gospel demand of us the speedy and complete discharge of this obligation "among all nations."

The cause of missions is one inseparable work whether conducted at home or abroad. The duty is as binding to go to the "uttermost part of the earth," as the "beginning at Jerusalem."

Baptists may well feel proud that they were among the leaders in instituting the modern missionary enterprise, and should feel that they, with sufficient reasons, are called upon to maintain distinct as well as world-wide missionary effort.

Southern Baptists have made reasonable advances in this work during the few years past, and each year witnesses a creditable increase in contributions and happy spiritual results in the several fields; but the great needs and opportunities for the enlargement of the work should awaken us to more united, liberal and prayerful effort.

For statistics and general information concerning the work, we recommend that our people read the Foreign Mission Journal and the various tracts published by the Foreign Mission Board.

W. E. Kimbrough

W. R. Blair

J. G. Fulmer, Committee.

Temperance

J. W. Richardson read the report on Temperance:

All of God's children should seek to stop the sale and use of intoxicating liquors in every legitimate way.

1—They should not use it themselves as it will offend others and bring the cause of Christ into disrepute.

2—They should try to prevent others from using it and thus save them from its awful effects.

3—Our preachers should preach against it and our people pray for the time to come when it shall be driven from our land.

4—All voters should be very careful to vote for those men who are in sympathy with the temperance cause and under no circumstances to vote for drunkards.

We advise our churches to discipline the drunkards, dram drinkers and whiskey sellers and exhort our pastors to instruct the people on this important subject and seek to advance the great cause of temperance.

J. W. Richardson

Geo. W. Ellis

J. A. Horn, Committee.

Adopted.

State Missions

Report on State Missions was read by E. H. Gray:

Thousands among us are perishing without the gospel.

Arkansas is a great mission field and our people have the means and opportunity to occupy it.

Much has been accomplished and thousands of souls have been led to Christ the work of our missionaries, but the demands are as great as ever. In view of the needs of the field, the Baptists of the State have a great and responsible task.

If the people ever receive the gospel in its purity, it must be given them through the Baptists.

Therefore we recommend, without reference to plans or methods, that our pastors take regular collections, and that our people contribute more liberally to the work of State Missions.

1. We believe in one only true and living God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament are a revelation from God, and that the New Testament is our only rule of faith and practice.
3. We believe in the doctrine of election as founded in the foreknowledge of God, through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ.
4. We believe in original sin by the fall of Adam.
5. We believe in man's incapacity by his own free will and ability, to rescue himself from a fallen state in which he is by nature.
6. We believe that the saints are justified in the sight of God by the imputed righteousness of Christ only.
7. We believe that the saints will be preserved in grace, and never fall finally away.

8. We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ; that believers are the only proper subjects of Baptism, and that immersion is the apostolic mode.

9. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment; and that the felicity of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.

10. We believe no minister has a right to administer the ordinances of the Gospel but one who has been regularly immersed, and that is called and comes under the imposition of the hands of a Scriptural Presbytery.

11. We believe that none but regularly immersed believers have a right to come to the Lord's Supper.

12. We believe that the Lord's day should be kept as a day of rest and devotional exercises.
